

Steamboat's

3RD ANNUAL WILD WEST AIR FEST AND AIRMEN'S RENDEVOUS LABOR DAY WEEKEND SEPTEMBER 1-3, 2007

Hey Foot Launching Pilots!

Its that time of year again to come fly Steamboat, party, eat and genuinely have a great time!

Friday night Social at Sunpies, 735 Yampa Ave in downtown Steamboat.

Saturday night dinner and awards at the historical Olympian Hall at the base of Howlesen Hill. A yummy Italian buffet, bragging, awards, and music are in order for the evening!

Sunday's goal places you at the Olson Ranch for the annual Pig Roast!

Aside from our own schedule of events, there is plenty to do in Steamboat for you and your family. Labor Day Weekend in Steamboat is packed with the entertainment in the air, on the mountain and all over town! It's a Labor Day celebration for the whole family featuring remote controlled aircraft, vintage aircrafts and war birds at the Steamboat Springs Airport, classic cars ; the final installment of the Annual Art on the Mountain, shopping and dogs! The Steamboat Springs Stockdog Trials are back and moving to Labor Day! If you love dogs you won't want to miss these amazing animals herding sheep in this great competition on Sunday and Monday. Plus our semi annual downtown sidewalk sale is a Steamboat tradition!

Please check out www.steamboatsummer.com and click on "featured events" for Labor Day and check out the calendar of local events for that weekend.

For registration and information please contact
Ken Grubbs at (303) 888-1255 or kengrubbs@msn.com
Mark Cahur at (970) 846-3824 or paramark1@msn.com

SPH, Inc.

Storm Peak Hand-gliding / Para-gliding